PREFACE

The CATHOLIC HISTORICAL REVIEW was begun in April 1915, with the definite purpose of stimulating a nation-wide interest in American Catholic history. Six years later it became the official organ of the American Catholic Historical Association, and hence extended the field of its study and research to general Church history. Since that time it has printed the papers presented at the annual meetings of the Association and in this way has not only seconded the work of other groups, such as the American Historical Association, with which it generally holds its annual sessions, but also has become the recognized center of the historical activities being promoted by American Catholics. The fact that its headquarters are at the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., enables the Association to obtain the assistance and direction of those members of the University faculty whose special studies are in the fields of history in general and of the history of the Catholic Church in particular.

The editors of the REVIEW during the first six years (1915-1921) were: the late Most Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, D.D., then Rector of the Catholic University of America; the late Bishop of Buffalo, the Most Rev. William Turner, D.D.; the present Papal Nuncio to Ireland, His Excellency, the Most Rev. Paschal Robinson, O.F.M., D.D.; the late Monsignor Patrick J. Healy, Patrick Quinn Professor of Church History in the Catholic University of America; the Very Rev. Nicholas A. Weber, S.M., D.D., professor of history in the same institution; and Monsignor Peter Guilday, who was named managing-editor of the REVIEW.

By the year 1919 the REVIEW had won so many readers and supporters that it was decided to found the American Catholic Historical Association; and with the April 1921 issue the REVIEW became the official organ of this new society. A change in the editorial board brought about the selection of the late Rev. Patrick W. Browne, Ph.D., S.T.D. (Laval), as managing-editor. Associated with him were Monsignor Healy, the Very Rev. Victor

MFM

O'Daniel, O.P., S.T.M., Litt.D., Charles Hallan McCarthy, Ph.D., the Very Rev. Henry Ignatius Smith, O.P., Ph.D., Leo Francis Stock, Ph.D., LL.D., Richard J. Purcell, Ph.D., and Dr. Guilday.

From 1921 to 1929, under Dr. Browne's guidance, the REVIEW won its place among the foremost historical quarterlies devoted to history. Due to a temporary illness, Dr. Browne was obliged to relinquish his editorship in April 1929, and the board was reorganized with Doctors Guilday, Leo Francis Stock and George Boniface Stratemeier, O.P., as co-editors. Later in 1931, six associate editors were selected as an advisory board to represent the American Catholic Historical Association. These were: the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Joseph Gleason, D.D., Oakland, California, past president of the Pacific Coast Branch of the American Historical Association; the Very Rev. Charles L. Souvay, C.M., D.D., then president of Kenrick Seminary, Webster Groves, Missouri; the Very Rev. Thomas Oestreich, O.S.B., D.D., then rector of Belmont Seminary, Belmont, North Carolina; the Rev. Francis Borgia Steck, O.F.M., Ph.D., then professor of history, Quincy College, Quincy, Illinois; the Rev. Robert Howard Lord, Ph.D., professor of Church history in St. John's Seminary, Brighton, Massachusetts; and the Rev. Gerald Groveland Walsh, S.J., M.A. (Oxon.), then professor of Church history, Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland. Later, Dr. Souvay was elected Superior-General of the Vincentians and now resides in Paris, France, and Father Walsh was appointed to the chair of mediaeval history in the Gregorian University, Rome, Italy. Their places were filled by the appointment of the Rev. Peter Leo Johnson, professor of ecclesiastical history in St. Francis Seminary, St. Francis, Wisconsin, and the Rev. Dr. Laurence Kent Patterson, S.J., professor of Church history in Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland.

With the April 1937 issue of the REVIEW (Vol. XXIII, No. 1) a change was made in its editorial staff. Added to the editors-in-chief was the Rev. Joseph B. Code, Sc. Hist. D., and the advisory board of editors then elected for three years is composed of: James F. Kenney, Ph.D., Litt.D., Assistant Archivist of the Public Archives of the Dominion of Canada, Ottawa; the Rev. Francis Borgia Steck, O.F.M., Ph.D., instructor in Hispanic American history in the Catholic University of America; the Rev. Raymond Corrigan, S.J., Ph.D., professor of history in St. Louis University, St. Louis, Missouri; the Very Rev. William Michael Ducey,

O.S.B., M.A., prior of St. Anselm's, Brookland, D. C.; the Rev. James A. Magner, S.T.D., Chicago, Illinois; and the Rev. Aloysius K. Ziegler, S.T.D., instructor in mediaeval Latin literature and mediaeval history, the Catholic University of America. Upon the resignation of Dr. Stratemeier in April 1938, his post was filled by Dr. Ziegler, and John J. Meng, Ph.D., instructor in politics, Catholic University of America, was elected to take the place of Dr. Ziegler as an advisory editor.

Although annual indexes have been printed since 1916 the need for a general index to the contents of the CATHOLIC HISTORICAL REVIEW has long been felt by students in the field of general ecclesiastical history and of American Catholic history.

This general index is the work of the Rev. Harold J. Bolton, S.T.D., of the Diocese of Grand Rapids, Michigan, who gave all his leisure time during the past three years to its compilation, and to whom the editorial board extends its sincere thanks for so arduous a piece of work. A strict alphabetical arrangement, to the first punctuation mark, has been attempted throughout the index.

One difficulty faced the editorial board—that of numbering the volumes. In April 1921, a New Series was begun and this Series continued until April 1929, when the older numeration was resumed—the latter issue appearing as Vol. 15, No. 1. In using this general index, therefore, it should be noted that the volume numbers run consecutively from 1 to 20. Hence the following table will guide the reader:

New	Series,	Volume	1	(1921-1922)	is	indexed	as	Volume	7
"	"	"	II	(1922-1923)	"	"	"	"	8
"	"	"	III	(1923-1924)	"	"	"	"	9
"	"	"	IV	(1924-1925)	"	"	"	"	10
"	"	"	V	(1925-1926)	"	"	"	"	11
"	"	"	VI	(1926-1927)	"	"	"	"	12
"	"	"	VII	(1927-1928)	"	"	"	"	13
"	"	"	VIII	(1928-1929)	"	"	"	"	14

Since 1921, no change has been made in the programme of the REVIEW. As the official organ of the American Catholic Historical Association, it will continue to discuss historical problems dealing with the internal and external life of the Catholic Church throughout the world; and, as in the past, the papers read at the annual meetings of the Association will be printed as main articles. An annual index to the contents of the REVIEW will be issued with each January number.
